Washington.—The American government today was exerting every influence at its disposal to obtain from General Villa the surrendered of British subject recently executed at Juarez. No reply had been received to the instructions sent to Consul Letcher, yesterday to find Benton's grave, and Secretary Bryan was surprised by news dispatches quoting Villa as saying Benton was buried in Chihuahua City. There have been persistent reports here, too, that the body was cremated.

Secretary Bryan conferred with President Wilson today and said nothing new in the situation had developed. Official denial came from the White House of one published report that Rear Admiral Fletcher had recommended the landing of marines at Vera Cruz.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Hamilton Entertains

Mrs. R. F. Hamilton entertained a large number of her friends Tuesday afternoon, at her new home on 501 West Pine street. The living room, dining room and den were tastefully decorated with pink and white carnations, interspersed with ferns and flags, and the beautiful effect caused many favorable remarks from those present.

Progressive hearts was the game of the afternoon. The prize, a beautiful cut-glass bon bon dish, went to Mrs. M. J. Moran, while Mrs. Thomas Marshall carried off the consolation offering.

The hostess was ably assisted by Mesdames Guiney and Johnson and the Misses May Clifford and Ruby Chaum. Miss Clifford and Mrs. Folk rendered several piano selections, following which an elegant 2-course luncheon was served.

Among those present were: Mesdames J. A. Mahoney, A. C. Rathel, A. W. Pollard, J. G. Moir, Martha B. Ament, Mary Hudson, Sam Watkins, C. J. Laughren, L. J. Pritchett, Nora L. Bush, Frank DeLauney, Sr., Frank DeLauney, Jr., H. H. Kelly, Frank Thurmond, Henry Meyers, Mayme Williams, Maud Johnston, Allie Stecker, M. J. Moran, J. B. Hodgdon, Thomas Marshall, Nell Guiney, J. J. Jacobson, W. E. Holt, Henry Rathel, W. Clifford, C. J. Clovis, J. H. Rogers, C. W. Folk, H. G. Bush, Frank Green, Chris Rathel, Ed Moran, D. B. Stephens, W. S. Clark, S. D. Swope, and the Misses Elizabeth Waddill, Ione Hodgdon, May Clifford, and Ruby Chaum.

Vickers-Leach

Dr. F. D. Vickers and Mrs. Crelle K. Leach were married here Sunday afternoon at the residence of J. M. Barracks, brother of the bride, 702 Zinc avenue, by the Rev. W. E. Paulk.

The wedding was a quite affair with only a number of relatives present among whom were: W. W. Barracks and family, Mrs. Dollie Layne, sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Barracks, parents of the bride, J. M. Barracks, wife and daughters, Leah and Fern, S. J. Daley, Miss Edna Poe and Miss Josie Gooding.

The newly married couple are well known here. Dr. Vickers, being one of the prominent physicians of the city, and the bride, who has been a resident of Deming for the last year and a half, is one of the popular members of the social set of the city.

After the ceremony a light and delicious luncheon was served, and Dr. Vickers and his wife left for their new home on a farm near Hondale, where they will make their future residence.

Social Circle

The Social Circle of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. Walter Russell, on Gold avenue, Thursday, March 5, at 2:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present and to bring a visitor. Refreshments will be served for which a charge of ten cents will be made.

Thursday Lily Auction Bridge Club

Mrs. Lorin J. Pritchett entertained the Thursday Lily Auction Bridge Club at the Harvey House, Thursday afternoon, and in addition had an extra table of hearts, composed of the following ladies: Mrs. J. S. Williams, Mrs. E. P. York, Mrs. J. E. Barnett, and Mrs. Rodgers.

The club guests were Mrs. Foxworth, Mrs. Sam Watkins, and Mrs. A. W. Pollard. The club prize was won by Mrs. H. H. Richardson, and the prize won at hearts was carried away by Mrs. J. S. Williams. The hostess served a delicious 2-course luncheon after which the resident of the club very graciously thanked Mrs. Pritchett for the very pleasant afternoon spent as her guests.

Lily Auction Bridge Club

The Lily Auction Bridge Club will meet this evening with Mrs. A. W. Pollard.

Miss McKeyes Entertains

Miss Faye McKeyes gave a little party last Tuesday evening at her home, 621 West Spruce street in honor of Miss Rita Wilkenson of Santa Rita. There were several young people present and cards and dancing were indulged in after which a light luncheon was served.

Honor Party

Mrs. S. R. Braselton entertained sixteen ladies at her home 812 West Pine street Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. Foxworth, who are visiting here. A delicious luncheon was served after the party enjoyed themselves with cards.

Philathea Class

The Philathea Class held its monthly business and social meeting last Tuesday evening with Misses Josie Gooding and Edna Poe at the

PRESIDENT LADD ENGAGED IN DOING EXTENSION WORK

President George E. Ladd is traveling over the State in the interest of the short courses for farmers, which will be given during March in four or five counties of New Mexico. Dr. Ladd was at Tucumcari on the 18th and 19th, at Roy on the 20th and 21st, Carrizozo on the 22nd, and reached Roswell on the 23rd. He expects to visit several other places in the Pecos Valley and complete the arrangement for holding the short courses.

LIBERTY THEATER COMPANY Incorporated CAPITAL $250,000.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 18, 1913.
Mr. E. R. Gerson, "Last Days of Pompeii," Pueblo, Colo.

My Dear Sir:—

Will you kindly advise about when you can give us a return date on the "Last Days of Pompeii." We have never had a picture that has drawn the crowds to the American Theater as this picture did and although we put over 25,000 people through the house in the three days it was here, I honestly believe we answered five hundred Phone calls the next day, from people asking if it had gone and if it would play a return date.

It is certainly an immense picture and I am sure it will draw as big on a return date as it did in the engagement just closed.

Thanking you for an early reply and wishing you every success, I beg to remain,

Yours Very Truly,
(COPIED) M. A. Sims, Manager.

CRYSTAL THEATER Tuesday, March 3

home of Mrs. J. M. Barracks on Zinc avenue.

After the usual business meeting, a social hour was spent and a luncheon was served by the hostesses. The meeting will be held next month with Miss Leona Hubbard.

Old Timers' Annual Meeting

The Old Timers' Association will hold its annual meeting on Wednesday, March 11, and will be entertained at the Harvey House by J. A. Mahoney, Secretary Edward Pennington will in a few days send out the invitations, which are being printed at the Graphic office. We take the liberty of publishing the invitation, as it will be issued by the Secretary.

And now, Old Timers, ye remaining few, That number not the half of those we knew, Ye, against whose familiar names not yet, The fatal asterisk of death is set, Yet I salute: The horologe of Time Sounds our second meeting day with solemn rhyme, And summons us together once again, The joy of meeting not unmixed with pain.

But banish all thought of pain or of fear, And on Wednesday, March the eleventh, this year, Round the festal board of the house of Fred Harvey, We will meet as the guests of Old Timers.

Let us sing once again of the Auld Lang Syne, When we were all "boys" and the times were all "fine"; Fill a glass to the ones who have crossed the divide, And a dozen to us who are yet on this side.

Beech Nut Party

Mrs. Chris Rathel entertained about thirty of her friends Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Spruce street.

The ladies brought their fancy work and guessing games were played. Prizes were won by Mrs. S. D. Swope, Mrs. L. C. Richardson, and Mrs. John Warren. A most delicate and appetizing 3-course luncheon was served in the dining room composed of Beech Nut preparations, by Miss Sunderferd, who is in Deming this week as representative of the Beech Nut Co.

Five Hundred Club

The Five Hundred Club met at the home of Mrs. Henry B. Hall last Friday. Mrs. Sam Watkins won the prize and Miss Anna Watkins was a guest of the club. After the cards a delicious light luncheon was served.

Royal Arch Chapter

Deming Royal Arch Chapter, Masonic, had an unusually interesting and enjoyable session Thursday evening, at which the Rev. Duncan Matheson and A. D. Tyler were made Royal Arch Masons in a way that will make a very lasting impression upon their minds. After the ceremony the members enjoyed a delicious oyster supper and the prince of caterers, N. A. Bolich, and an hour or more was spent as such jolly good fellows know how to spend, with good music, singing, and a feast of reason and flow of soul that does so much to unite Masons as a band of brothers among whom no contention can ever exist.
